Arts and culture are integral elements of tourism in Santa Fe. From the Pueblo-style architecture to the countless art galleries, Santa Fe is constantly filled with people from different parts of the world, coming together to learn about the culture of this unique city.

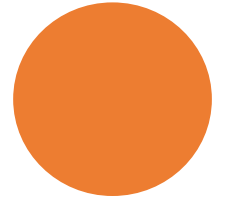

One popular and historic way culture takes shape is in the form of ceramics. Paseo Pottery is a ceramic studio and gallery in Santa Fe offering locally made pottery and classes. 100% of net profits from experiences are donated to local charities.

Prize: (2) 2-hour class gift certificates + a piece of pottery from the gallery

Location: Santa Fe

Value: $250
