North Valley Retreat at Casa Z

This beautifully kept 1940's home is nestled on a quiet street in the north valley, Albuquerque. The 3-bedroom, 2 bath home sits on a lush one-acre property. If you are visiting at harvest time, you'll find plenty of apple trees, pear trees, and grape vines that you are free to enjoy, as you relax in one of the two outdoor patios under the shade of the many indigenous trees.

The gated property is completely fenced and set back from the road with plenty of space for parking, (including space for an RV). The newly renovated kitchen is a gourmet cook's dream! The beautiful talavera tile adds to the authenticity of the Territorial Style home. The open kitchen contains modern appliances and is fully stocked with everything you would need to enjoy a home-cooked meal. Hardwood and brick floors abound throughout the two main living areas as well as all three bedrooms.

Prize: (2) 1-night stay at a 3-bedroom house, sleeps 10

Value: $400
